REALTOR®

Helping you find your Florida fit!

It doesn't necessarily take her Masters in Accounting for Joyce Murphy to know that the real estate options in Southwest Florida are innumerable. "The choices can be daunting," she says. "When we first came to SWFL over 15 years ago, we were overwhelmed. We knew we wanted an active lifestyle in a golf and tennis community, but we soon learned that that describes a lot of communities. So, we did our research and crunched our numbers, and we were successful in finding our perfect fit. We are surrounded by good friends, and we're close to beaches, fine shopping and great restaurants."

As a real estate professional, Joyce knows there are countless reasons for purchasing Florida real estate, and also countless places to look for it. Joyce makes the buying experience a pleasurable one. In addition to her keen market knowledge, she offers her clients something unique – and that is her analytical insight that comes from her background in accounting, from working on Wall Street, and as a former business owner. She wants to ensure that the home you find fits all your needs. She wants your real estate decision to be based on sound data, whether you are purchasing a year-round home or a vacation getaway, because you'll want to be able to make the most you can when you decide to sell.

"I want to help you find your desired lifestyle – to help you Find Your Florida Fit."

"My husband is a retired police officer and past delegate of his PBA in New Jersey," says Joyce. "We have four beautiful children and a second grandchild on the way. Our family loves to visit us here in SWFL, and I wouldn't be surprised if one day some of them relocate here. This is a great place to raise a family."

"I want to help you find your desired lifestyle. Whether you need advice about Southwest Florida or Florida in general, please call me. My goal is to help you Find Your Florida Fit."
